Symptoms

Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON guarantees to correct every case that he undertakes. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

ATTENTION, COMMITTEES!

An Important Meeting Will be Held Friday Afternoon.

The following persons appointed on committees for the gala week and men's tournament in this city in August are urged to be present at an important meeting to be held at Eagle Hall, over S. S. Brown's store, on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, for the purpose of consulting together, mapping out a program and transacting such other business as may be deemed advisable.

Every citizen of Greensboro who feels an interest in the coming celebration, is requested to meet with the committees.

This will be an occasion of much importance to Greensboro and Guilford county, and it is hoped that every one will lend his assistance toward making it a grand success.

Quite a number of important sub-committees are yet to be selected. These will be announced later.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Katherine Brooks Entertains a Number Of Young Friends.

Miss Katherine Brooks gave a delightful birthday party from 8:30 to 12:15 o'clock last evening at the home of her father, Mr. R. W. Brooks, on South Elm street. A number of her jolly young friends were present and the evening was most pleasantly spent. After a short while spent at enjoyable games the guests were treated for more than half an hour to a number of charming selections on the piano and violin. The piano solos and duets by Misses Juanita Cooper and Katherine Brooks, violin selections by Miss Lula Brooks, and vocal solos by Miss Mary Brooks were each splendid and immensely enjoyed by all present.

At eleven o'clock the guests were ushered, in pairs, into the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served, and after another hour spent at games and music the young people departed wishing their hostsess many happy returns of the day, the evening of which was so pleasantly spent with her.

They Have Your Name.

All the day policemen and some extra workers had yesterday making a house-to-house canvass taking the names of all persons who have, as yet, failed to comply with the vaccination law. About a thousand names were taken and the work was resumed this morning. It is a noticeable fact, the officers say, that a larger majority of the colored population than of the white have been vaccinated and nearly all of the names taken being those of white people. There are about 5,000 people in the city who have not been vaccinated and the authorities say it must be done at once.

Pretty Show Windows.

One of our hustling shoe dealers, Mr. M. B. Shrier, has two of the prettiest show windows in the city. They were dressed yesterday—one in white and red, and the other in white and green. The handsome line of shoes on exhibition in the windows add much to the appearance. The shoes are not only pretty, but they are well made from first-class stock. The windows should be seen to be appreciated.

Thacker & Brockmann's new spring lines of dress goods, silks, wash fabrics, trimmings, novelties, etc., are being opened up and in a few days they will be ready to show the most complete and attractive line of spring goods they have ever shown.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever, sore, tetter, clapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. E. Holton.

REPRESENTATIVES HERE TODAY.

Visit to the State Normal and Industrial College and Many Other places of Interest.

The New England Newspaper League representing eleven strong and influential newspapers, arrived in Greensboro from Raleigh last evening. The following gentlemen compose the party:

C. F. King, chief of staff and general manager.

Edward P. Critcher and Frank H. Crader, business representatives.

W. H. Rhodes, and J. W. Reardon, correspondents.

Frank Hendry and F. M. West, sketch artists and photographers.

A. H. Rhodes, secretary to general manager.

This composes the party of genial men who are touring Dixie. Mr. King, manager, is a native Tarheel and is much pleased at the opportunity of visiting his native heath and noting the many marked evidences of progress the old state is making. This morning a committee of citizens took the members of the league in carriages for a drive around the city. We felt it necessary to make apologies only for the miserable condition of our streets and the New England people look it for granted the town was growing so fast that street work could not be kept up.

C. F. King, general manager.

The first place visited was the State Normal and Industrial College, an institution Greensboro is always delighted to show to visitors. President Melver took great pains to show the visitors through the buildings and the various departments. One place of special interest was the large dining hall and the clean, well managed and kept culinary department. The impression made on the young ladies students by this department alone will be valuable to them ever in after life, as they all will, most assuredly.

After visiting the various departments the party was conducted to the chapel where a large number of young ladies had gathered and after a few words of welcome by Dr. Melver the visitors were treated to a rendition of our state song "The Old North State" in song and with vocal skill that elicited a round of applause. Mayor Taylor then introduced Mr. King who made a pleasing talk. He said:

"On behalf of the representatives of the New England Newspaper League, I wish to assure you of our heartfelt appreciation of your cordial greeting, and I can assure you that the singing of that song, 'The Old North State Forever,' awakens memories in my breast that the singing of no other song ever awakens."

"Being a native of North Carolina, and having been raised in North Carolina and gone away some years ago, I have not forgotten the good people of this state. I have not forgotten the lessons that were taught me in North Carolina, and whenever, no matter where I have been, I could say a good word for North Carolina, I have always said it. Somehow I believe in home pride, and with all the trials and tribulations with which this state (politically speaking, I mean) has been afflicted, I love her still, and standing before you this morning, I want to tell you that in Boston before starting on this trip nearly three weeks ago, I left in my home there a North Carolina girl, and she said to me that she was glad that I was coming back to our own state, and on reaching here last night I received a letter from a boy, not yet nine years old, and he said, 'Papa, when you reach Charlotte, I want you to go and look at the little green house where I was born."

"I feel proud of the reception that is being given me and that which is being given to every member of my party on their tour south."

"I am reminded this morning more forcibly perhaps than ever before of a remark that Bill Arp once made. Bill Arp is a philosopher, a humorist and a scholar. He lives in Georgia and I know him very well. He was travelling in Texas—a good way from Georgia—just as we are a good way from home. In one of his letters which he sent back to the Atlanta Constitution, he says: 'I cannot help it; I will own to the truth; the farther I get away from home, the longer I am away from home, the prettier the girls look. I think we are all impressed with the truth of Arp's saying, and cannot help it. I thank you very much for your cordial greeting.'"

Mr. West, the artist, being called upon, said:

"I—I—I—do not think that I can make a speech. This is the second time I have ever tried to talk before a public body, but when I am asked to talk to young ladies I have always tried to say something. I am the artist, and as I am a single man, I think I have a right to look at the young ladies. I have seen many here that I wish I could make a sketch of. But I have not time and I do not believe that I can do it. I think it would be easier for me to stand on my head and make a free-hand sketch of Mark Hanna than it would be to talk or make a speech."

"My friends told me when I left that I would get married and stay down here. But I am still here. (Great applause). I thank you for your—(laughter)."

Mr. Ross being introduced, said: "Young ladies I think this is the most awkward predicament that I was ever in. To begin with I am no orator. I have occasionally addressed people in public, but not so much beauty and intelligence as faces here now. And naturally I am somewhat at a loss as to what to say."

I came from a section where they have given a great deal of attention and spent a great deal of money for education, and for the last thirty or forty years, the education of women in New England has not been secondarily to the education of men. We

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 22—A distinguished delegation of citizens from Atlanta, Ga., are in the city on various missions of interest to their city. Among the prominent men accompanying the delegation are Mayor Woodward, ex-Mayor Collier, ex-Governor Bullock, T. B. Noel, president of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, and H. H. Cabanis, business manager of the Atlanta Journal.

Mr. Collier, who is one of the party, was seen at the Shoreham Hotel yesterday, and he stated that among other matters the delegation have come to ask the war department to bring the volunteer troops who are about to return to the United States to Atlanta to be mustered out, as they believe Atlanta to be the most convenient city for that purpose. In speaking about the prospects of this action being taken, Mr. Collier spoke interestingly about the enactment of a national quarantine law. Such a law, he says, would be for the benefit of the entire south, and would be the surest means of preventing the introduction in this country of yellow fever and kindred diseases. Georgia, he says, has a state quarantine law which goes into effect on the first of April, and there is some danger that this state law may operate against the bringing home of the troops by way of Atlanta, should the department be disposed to do so.

Mr. Collier thinks that the quarantine regulations should be under the control of the national government, and has advocated this for many years past, believing that better results could be obtained then, as is now the case, of allowing each state to fix and determine upon its own quarantine regulations.

At the war department it is the opinion of the officials that very few of the troops will be sent home by way of southern ports, though this may not apply to Newport News, which may get a good share of the business.

The smallpox epidemic, which has never been very severe in this section, is reported to be decreasing, and very few new cases are being reported either in this city or Alexandria. Surgeon General Wyman, of the Marine Hospital Service, has discontinued the inspection, which was ordered some time ago on the ferry boats and trains running between this city and Alexandria. At the hospital service it is stated that the disease both in this city and Alexandria has been almost entirely stamped out, and with the coming of warm weather no fear or apprehension is felt of its breaking out afresh.

Secretary and Mrs. Day, who have been sojourning in Florida for the health of Judge Day, will spend some time at Asheville, N. C., before running further north. It is not known how long they will stop at Asheville, but will probably be there for several days. The trip to Florida and vicinity has, it is said, greatly improved the Secretary, who for the greater part of this winter has been suffering from some bronchial trouble.

At the Postoffice department there have been no appointments of fourth class postmasters announced for several days, and it is said there is not likely to be any list announced before the middle of next week. At the office of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General it is said that in Virginia and North Carolina, and in fact in nearly all of the southern states, there is not likely to be very many appointments made, excepting to fill vacancies caused by deaths or resignations. Very few of the present incumbents will be dismissed before the expiration of their terms of office, excepting for cause.

Star service change in North Carolina has been ordered from Chincapin to Magnolia, from April 1st, increase service to six times a week, change schedule to daily except Sunday, same hours as at present.

Postmasters have been commissioned in North Carolina as follows: Theophilus Kimmel, Hulen; Jesse C. Anderson, Marble; Alice L. Messick, New Castle, and Warren M. Wight, Swift Island.

Among North Carolina people in Washington are Joseph G. Brown, Raleigh; W. A. Glenn, Charlotte; William A. Guthrie, Durham; J. S. Carr Durham, and A. B. Andrews, Raleigh; H. E. Speakman, Wilmington and John Y. McRae.

Miss Florence E. Holt, of Burlington, North Carolina, is stopping at the Ebbitt House for a few days.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 1899.

Everybody—North Carolina people generally—will regret to learn that the North Carolina Car Company has met financial trouble which forced it to the wall. Announcement of its assignment yesterday will be found in our news columns today. It will be remembered that Mr. Percy Albright gave up a good position with the C. & P. & Y. V. railway some months ago and went to Raleigh as manager of the above named company. We sympathize with him as well as those Raleigh people who put their money in the unfortunate enterprise.

A prominent citizen living in an eastern town, who was in the city this morning, remarked that he would like to live in Greensboro, that he always liked the place, but he liked it now better than ever. "You have here the Keeley Institute," said he, "for the cure of drunkenness, and will soon have the dispensary to reduce and curtail drunkenness and prevent the wholesale manufacture of drunkards; and you have gone to work with a will to prevent the spread of smallpox. I like the way Greensboro takes hold of things and wish I could come here to live." And we would be glad to have him as we would any and all good people who choose to cast their lots with us.

Our health officers have taken hold of the vaccination business with a will and are so determined to have everybody vaccinated that they have detailed the whole police force for that duty. At least it was said yesterday that the whole force, excepting the chief, was out on vaccination business. We hope the authorities will not let their determination to enforce health laws stop at vaccination and that they will take a firm hold of some other things which breed disease equally as typhoid fever and smallpox—typhoid fever. Last summer there was allowed to stall on the streets green and slimy cess-pools, disease and mosquito breeders, to which frequent attention was called by this paper and which was as frequently ignored. The caution of the authorities is right, and it should be extended along all lines. The fact that a hole of water containing fever germs is not as exciting as a case of smallpox should be no excuse.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it cures that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by C. E. Holton.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

How Balloons Are Made.

Balloons are manufactured of gold beater's skin, which, though small toy ones had been made of it, could not be produced in sufficient quantities for the large balloons until Colonel Temperley invented and perfected the process, which is briefly as follows:

The gold beater's skin is made up of quantities of a certain thin animal membrane (30,000 of these are required for a balloon of 10,000 cubic feet capacity), which is first freed from all fatty substances and then soaked in a solution of glycerin and water. They are then applied to boards cut in the form and to the size of the gore of the balloon required. Others are then superposed, until a thickness of four layers has been reached, great care being taken that no air bubbles remain between the skins. After this fourth layer a method of strengthening is resorted to in the shape of a net manufactured of skin. After this net two or three more layers of membranes are applied.

The whole is then allowed to dry, and a solution of boiled linseed oil is used as a varnish. The fabric is then quite indissoluble, and the membranes cannot by any possible means be separated from one another, but sometimes, to render this homogeneity the more perfect, a solution of bichromate of potash is sponged over the fabric—Pall Mall Magazine.

Beautiful Viennese Women.

Vienna, the capital of Austria, is chiefly noted for producing three things—coffee, music and women. The word "gypsy" describes the temper of the Viennese woman most aptly. She lives only for today and lets the morrow take care of itself. She is as good a housekeeper as her German sister, but not quite so particular. She is quite as economical, but dresses herself more artistically. She is just as good a mother, but a more loving wife. She is somewhat nervous, and the quarrel with her husband is as regular as the amen in her prayer. The trust and prettiest type of the beautiful Viennese woman is that which comes from the south. In common with the majority of her European sisters, the Viennese makes marriage her goal, but retains her girlish ways, her jolly spirit and much of her beauty, and even guess at her age is not only a crime, but an absurdity—Edward A. Steiner in Woman's Home Companion.

Blankets of Bark.

In Ecuador, one of the South American republics, the bark of a tree which grows on the slopes of the Andes is utilized for the making of blankets. The blanket is over six feet long and over five feet wide and is as soft and pliable as though it were made of flannel. It is about the thickness of a good flannel blanket and can be rolled up and put in a strap without hurting or injuring it. This tree or bark blanket is merely a strip of bark cut from a section of the trunk of the bark or damagana tree. The Indians make a cutting around the trunk to get it, and they prepare it by soaking it in water until it is soft. It is then pounded so that the rough outside can be stripped off and the inside alone left. The inside is of fine fibers so bound together in nature that it makes a beautiful blanket, warm enough to be used as a cover and soft enough for a mattress.

Poison Hemlock.

Water hemlock is a deadly plant common in most country neighborhoods. Its roots are eaten often in spring by mistake for some edible root, and death frequently results. Cattle are often poisoned by drinking water in marshes where it grows.

The poison hemlock from which the Greeks made poisons is a near relative to the water hemlock. It stands from two to seven feet high and has clusters of small white flowers and large, parsley-like leaves. The stalk being hollow, is often made into whistles by country boys, and many children are poisoned in this fashion.

Mixed Berries.

A young tailor named Barry, lately succeeded in his father's business, once sent in his account to Charles Matthews, somewhat ahead of time, whereupon Matthews, with virtuous rage, wrote him the following note: "You must be a goose—Barry to send me your bill—Barry, before it is due—Barry. Your father, the elder—Barry, would have had more sense. You may look very black—Barry, and feel very blue—Barry, but I don't care a straw—Barry for you and your bill—Barry." "Cyclopaedia of Anecdotes."

Salt For Small Change.

Besides the Maria Theresa 1780 dollars the people of Abyssinia for small change use a bar of hard crystallized salt, about 10 inches long and 1 1/2 inches broad and thick, slightly tapering toward the end, five of which go to the dollar at the capital. It is a token of affection among the natives when friends meet to give to each other a lick of their respective haws, and in this way the material value of the salt is also decreased.

Didn't Stammer All the Time.

An electrical engineer who stutters once endeavored to be cured of the habit, and for that purpose went to an institution near Boston. The manager, questioning him, asked: "Do you stammer all the time?" "Nun-nun-nun-no, sir; o-o-o-only when-whu-when I t-t-t-talk, sir."—Electrical Review.

Diamonds may be black as well as white, and some are blue, red, yellow, green, pink and orange, but there is no violet diamond, although, in addition to amethysts, there are sapphires, rubies and garnets of that color.

A man endowed with great perfection without good breeding is like one who has his pockets full of gold, but always wants change for his ordinary occasions.—Steele.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist Church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will prove me." For sale by C. E. Holton.

IN A TRAP OF FLAME.

Three Dead and Twenty Injured In An Omaha Fire.

Omaha, Neb., March 21.—Comparatively insignificant in material destruction, but appalling in its harvest of death and suffering, was a fire that partially destroyed the Patterson block, at 17th and Douglas streets this afternoon. Two of its victims have already passed away, one more is not expected to live and twenty others are suffering from broken limbs and burned and lacerated flesh.

The blaze started shortly after three o'clock. A group of happy women, busy with the affairs of the secret orders with which they were affiliated, were in a moment brought face to face with death. Sixty seconds later seven of them lay burned and bleeding on the pavements, to which they had dropped, forty feet below, and the others were rescued after they had been more or less severely injured in their desperate dash down the single flight of stairs that led to safety.

The fire originated from the explosion of a gas-oil stove in a room from the rear of the third floor of the building, and next to the elevator shaft. It was not discovered until it had spread to the adjoining apartments and the entire floor was filled with smoke and flames. About twenty members of the Women's Lodge of Maccabees were attending a committee meeting in the front waiting room on the same floor. They were unconscious of the danger until a janitor threw open the door and told them to get out before the flames cut them off.

The fire swept through the door and down the single stairway. These nearest the door fled through the blinding smoke and reached the street with hands and faces burned and blistered. The rest faced a solid wall of flame. There was a fire escape at the south front of the building, but none thought of it. They rushed panic-stricken to the windows through which the smoke was already pouring. The fire was scarcely a foot behind them. It caught their clothing and scorched their faces.

In another instant the spectators were horrified to see one after another spring from the open windows. They were carried into the office of a physician across the street. Most of them were bleeding from severe cuts and bruises, and all were burned.

As fast as dressing could be applied the victims were taken to the Clarkson Hospital. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Schmalz died without recovering consciousness. Aside from the fatalities and the injuries to persons, the fire was not a serious one. The loss will not exceed $50,000, half of which was on the building. The losses are fully covered by insurance.

Various secret societies which occupied halls on the second and third floors lost their regalia and reports.

N. C. CAR COMPANY ASSIGNS.

A Deed of Trust Was Executed on Yesterday.

The North Carolina Car Company is in trouble, every reader of the Post will regret to learn—financial trouble, of course.

Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock there was filed in the office of the register of deeds of Wake county a formal conveyance in trust (which is virtually an assignment) of the property and affairs of the company to Edward Chambers Smith, Esq., a well known attorney of this city, and Charles H. Bolvin, president of the National Bank of Raleigh, who are made trustees to settle up the affairs of the company.

The legal instrument in full is printed, and it will be noticed that the principal creditor is the National Bank of Raleigh. The indebtedness of the concern to other parties, as intimated by the provisions of the conveyance, does not appear to be large. The sums recited in the conveyance as being due the bank ($135 55 each on four notes, making $622 20 due on these notes, and $232 05 due on another note) aggregate $1,145 25. The company, however, yesterday confessed judgment in favor of the same creditor before Clerk Russ in the sum of $18,780 25. These several sums makes the National Bank of Raleigh a creditor to the extent of that amount, the notes named in the conveyance being included in the confessed judgments among others, more particularly noted below.

Judgments were also entered yesterday in the case of the Cary Lumber Company to the amount of $200.36, and H. M. Farnsworth for $148. The amounts due other creditors, with the exception of about $1,000 due laborers and workmen in the factory, and are not numerous. The assets could not be obtained definitely, but it is believed that they are ample to more than satisfy all the indebtedness, and it is hoped and believed that the business will be continued.—Morning Post.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite; gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I bought a bottle and, to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued its use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States will meet at New York, April 27, to make fall conference assignments.

Edward P. Smith, of Dayton, O., who fell down a flight of stairs at a Buffalo, N. Y., hotel last Thursday, died yesterday.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was led to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—Josh Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Florida and the South.
Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent
New York & Florida Limited Service
JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2:20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jacksonville are conveniently reached by this train at 11 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York and Florida, via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jacksonville. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on P. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. R. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A. F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thwaites, E. P. A., Southern Ry., 271 Broadway, New York.

Notice of Election.
Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the board of aldermen held on Monday, the 6th day of March, 1899, M. C. Workman was appointed registrar, and A. M. McAdoo of the first ward, J. T. Abbott of the second ward, B. E. Sargent of the third ward, John H. Rankin of the fourth ward, W. G. Lewis of the fifth ward, and G. T. Gluscock of the sixth ward, were appointed inspectors of election to be held on the 31st of May, 1899, for the election of mayor and a board of aldermen.

This is to give notice that M. C. Workman, registrar, will attend from 7 a. m. till sunset at the M. P. Publishing House building on South Elm street, beginning on the 27th day of March and continuing to within ten days of said election, for the purpose of registering those who are entitled to register in the said city election.

By order of the board,
March 7, 1899. John S. Michaux, m8-100. City Clerk.

WINE OF CARDUI
HEALTHY OLD AGE.
LARGE, BENTON CO. ARE, Aug. 4.
I am 49 years old and have been suffering with Change of Life. I had flooding spells so bad that none thought I could live. My husband got me Wine of Cardui and it saved my life. I am like another person since taking it.
MRS. E. B. TOWNSEND.

Wine of Cardui
It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age. None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

The Cruel Knife!

It is absolutely useless to expect a surgical operation to cure cancer, or any other blood disease. The cruelty of such treatment is illustrated in the alarming number of deaths which result from it. The disease is in the blood, and hence cannot be cut out. Nine times out of ten the surgeon's knife only hastens death.

My son had a most malignant Cancer, for which the doctors said an operation was the only hope. The operation was a severe one, as it was necessary to cut down to the jaw bone and scrape it. Before a great while the Cancer returned, and began to grow rapidly. We gave him many remedies without relief, and in fact, upon the advice of a friend, decided to try S. S. S. (Swift's Specific), and with the second bottle he began to improve. After twenty bottles had been taken, the Cancer disappeared entirely, and he was cured. The cure was a permanent one, as he is now seventeen years old, and has never had a sign of the dreadful disease to return.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrhs, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Instat vigorously on having it if "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

KILLING IN MONTGOMERY.

An Attempt to Collect Taxes Ends in a Bloody Fight.

It is le ned here that a bloody fight occurred at the distillery of Jim Stewart, in Montgomery county, on last Saturday. Ex-Sheriff Ewing drove out to the distillery to collect some taxes and a came involved in a quarrel with Stewart and others over the matter. A furious fight followed, and in the melee Ewing shot Stewart, killing him instantly. Ewing was arrested and carried to jail at Troy. On the way he complained of his back and when the jail was reached an examination showed that he had been severely slashed with a knife. It is charged that he was out after the fight. Friends of Stewart will employ counsel and Ewing will be vigorously prosecuted.

--News and Observer.

Before the discovery of One Minute Cough Cure, ministers were greatly disturbed by coughing congregations. No excuse for it now. Howard Gardner.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Howard Gardner.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

G. W. Hinshaw, of Winston, was here today.

Hon. R. B. Glenn, of Winston, was in the city today.

Sam Thompson, of the farmers' warehouse, went to Winston today on tobacco business.

Charles Bivins, a popular young man of Albemarle, has accepted position with Jos. J. Stone.

President Edwin A. Alderman, of the University, was in the city today. He went north on number 36.

Mrs. Lee Turrentine, of Burlington, passed through the city today enroute to Danville, to visit relatives.

Miss Sankie Gilbert, who has been visiting Mrs. R. M. Phillips, on South Elm street, returned to her home in Goldston today.

Don't fail to see the game of baseball next Tuesday between Oak Ridge and Cornell. It will probably be the best game in Greensboro this season.

Oak Ridge is plucky in athletics. You remember she had the courage to tackle Brooklyn here two or three years ago. This time she expects to win as she has a crack-a-jack team this year.

Cornell University ranks along with Yale, Harvard, Princeton and the University of Pennsylvania in athletics, and without doubt sends the best college team to the south that will come this year.

Mr. William Canvass, of Mineral Wells, Texas, a brother-in-law of Mrs. A. A. Johnson, of this city, spent last night in Greensboro and left today for his old home in Chatham county, on a visit to relatives. Mr. Canvass left North Carolina eight years ago and engaged in farming in Texas.

The Oak Ridge Institute baseball team passed through this morning enroute to Chapel Hill, where they tackle the University team this afternoon. This game opens the season for Oak Ridge. The team is said to be in good training. Tomorrow they play the Bingham School team at Mebane, and on next Wednesday cross bats with the Cornell University team. The latter game will be played in Greensboro.

The arrival of fine, plain and fancy goods at E. M. Caldclough & Bros. continues. China, tea and toilet sets made by all the largest and best manufacturers in the world. The largest house south of New York—no trouble to find what you want. Prices are controlled by quality. In addition to their mammoth stock of crockery and China ware, they carry all kinds of lamp goods of the newest and latest designs. Their place is handsome, elegant, complete—a first class China store carrying all kindred branches. People from other cities who visit it are astonished and amazed at the splendid display made by these gentlemen.

Gulford College Notes.

Gulford College, March 21.
On Saturday evening, March 25th, there will be an entertainment at Gulford College given by the Athletic Association. Quite a good deal of time has been spent in preparation for this event and a successful evening is expected. All those who wish to see a good entertainment by the best local college talent are cordially invited to be present. Refreshments will be served at the close of the exercises and the baseball team hopes to get a financial backing from the proceeds. Those who have attended the rehearsals predict a very creditable entertainment. Greensboro friends are especially invited.

MRS. HOUSEKEEPER:
Please permit us to ask you a very pointed question: Have you a Universal Food Chopper? By this we do not mean a meat grinder, but a Chopper, which takes the place of chopping bowl and beater.

It chops meat, of course, but it does more. You can chop ham, coconut, or bread instead of grating it. You can—but we can't tell it all here. Our booklet gives full information. Free. You will have use for it every day in the year. It is very simple and very cheap. Please call and let us show it to you. Yours truly, Shrier's First Offerings.

We take pleasure this season in presenting for your consideration what we consider the finest assortment of Form-Fitting Shoes for men and ladies, misses and children, ever shown in Greensboro.

Our lines for Spring are now complete and only await the prestige of your approval.

Every new idea in quality and finish, ease and comfort, grace of style and excellence of workmanship are embodied in this season's production.

Owing to our central location and the nominal expense required to conduct our business, we are enabled to sell our goods 25 per cent cheaper than any house in Greensboro, quality and make considered.

The question where to buy good and reliable goods at the right price is a very important one. We feel if you call on us, we can answer the question to your entire satisfaction, and make a lasting impression besides.

Do not be deluded by the thought that the assortments in the large cities are greater. True, the quantity is greater, but the assortment is no better, and the price is correspondingly higher, owing to the increased expense.

Kindly call on us at your earliest convenience and allow us to prove to you that these statements are true.
